J. Edgar Hoover - Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

MIKHAIL KONSTANTIN KALATOZOV with aliases
INTERNAL SECURITY - R

For your information, in connection with the investigation of the activities of the above-named individual, the Bureau has received the following information from a strictly confidential source.

b7C

On May 19, 1944, [redacted] of the United States State Department informed Vassili Zubilin, Second Secretary of the U.S.S.R. Embassy, Washington, D.C. that he had discussed Kalatozov's activities with the Department of Justice and they fell within the purview of the Registration Act, i.e. dissemination of films, etc. [redacted] stated that Kalatozov must register with the Department of Justice as an agent of a foreign principal even though he is registered with the State Department as a Soviet official. It was indicated that this would probably apply also to Kalatozov's assistant, [redacted] who was referred to as the [redacted]. Zubilin stated that he would inform the Ambassador of this fact.

It is noted that in the reports which previously have been submitted in this case that the character has been shown as "Security Matter - R." In the future, it is desired that this case be given the character, "Internal Security - R."
