Dear Mr. McKeever,

I am writing to express my deep appreciation for the support and encouragement you have provided to our government and people. Your kind words and actions have been a source of comfort and strength during these difficult times.

I am particularly moved by the outpouring of messages of support from the warm-hearted citizens of your great country. Since you declared your eagerness to do whatever you could to help, I am sure that the feelings you have expressed so well in your letter to Mrs. Eunice have been widely shared by many others.

I believe that the Korean people, who have carried on so long, are expressions of the deep sentiments of faith, which animate and strengthen the whole Korean population in this time of trial. With renewed appreciation for your fine statement of support, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Although you describe yourself as one of the plain folk, President Rhee can never express adequately how much he is cheered by the outpouring of messages of support from the warm-hearted citizens of your great country.
