From Peking 13 October 1950

Priority.

To Filippov [Stalin]

At 2100 13 October Mao Zedong called me to him and stated the following:

The CPC CC has again discussed the last telegram of Cde. Filippov and my decision. Our senior comrades think that we should help the Koreans. In view of these reasons Cde. Mao Zedong asks that Zhou Enlai be immediately kept in Moscow. He has sent him new instructions for a discussion of the Korean issue with you. I will send the details of the conversation immediately after this telegram.
