

Date unknown

Undated, unsigned handwritten note, presumably written by Minister Pinchas Sapir to Minister without Portfolio Yisrael Galili

Citation:

"Undated, unsigned handwritten note, presumably written by Minister Pinchas Sapir to Minister without Portfolio Yisrael Galili", Date unknown, Wilson Center Digital Archive, File 13, Adam Raz collection. Contributed and translated by Or Rabinowitz.
<https://digitalarchive.wilsoncenter.org/document/300090>

Summary:

Presumably written by Minister Pinchas Sapir to Minister without Portfolio Yisrael Galili, this handwritten and undated note underscores the tension between those in the Israeli leadership who spearheaded the construction of Dimona, led by Shimon Peres and Moshe Dayan, and those who doubted it and its financial feasibility, like Allon and others.

&nbsp;

Editor's note: Because of the unique provenance of this document, it should be treated as unauthenticated and interpreted skeptically. Readers are strongly encouraged to read the associated essay by Or Rabinowitz.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Carnegie Corporation of New York (CCNY)

Original Language:

Hebrew

Contents:

Translation - English

Had we known in advance that it will cost 340 million dollars - would we have voted for Dimona?