

September 3, 1963

Undated, unsigned handwritten note, possibly by Minister without Portfolio Galili

Citation:

"Undated, unsigned handwritten note, possibly by Minister without Portfolio Galili", September 3, 1963, Wilson Center Digital Archive, File 1, page 5 of 32, Adam Raz collection. Contributed and translated by Or Rabinowitz.
<https://digitalarchive.wilsoncenter.org/document/300091>

Summary:

Written by an unknown author (possibly Galili) to an unknown recipient, this document dates from September 1963. It points to the fact that Israel saw itself as strictly in adherence to the nuclear-related commitments undertaken by Ben Gurion in his letters to President John F. Kennedy, referred to the note as "B.G letters". The note consists of a list of short explanatory statements on the nature of these commitments and how Israel interprets them.

&nbsp;

Editor's note: Because of the unique provenance of this document, it should be treated as unauthenticated and interpreted skeptically. Readers are strongly encouraged to read the associated essay by Or Rabinowitz.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Carnegie Corporation of New York (CCNY)

Original Language:

Hebrew

Contents:

Translation - English

We did not disclose the object of the factory

We did not commit to inspection

We mentioned and stressed sovereignty in the timing of friendly inspections,

We did not break from the content of B.G letters

The French inspection procedure on the fuel before start-up

[Unclear scribble at the head of note, different handwriting]