[To the] [Chinese] Embassy in India:

It has been decided domestically that Cormades Burhan Shahidi [Bao Erhan] and Yao Nian (using the titles of Deputy Secretary of the Chinese Committee for Afro-Asian Solidarity) and translators [illegible] Rongfang (Party member, female) and Zheng Wanzhen ([Communist Youth] League member) will attend the Indian Peace and Disarmament Conference. This has been cabled to Cha-man La-er [sic]. Please transmit this again, and request his assistance with processing visas and monitor his response. They will leave on the 23rd or the 24th, and are preparing to pay a few visits [upon individuals] in addition to attending the Conference. Burhan and Zheng will go from India to Moscow and onto to Guinea to attend the Afro-Asian Peoples' Solidarity Assembly. Please reserve two tickets on flight 104 to Moscow on 2 April [1960].
