Premier Zhou said, the United Arab Republic and Algeria were not in favor of having a document in support of Vietnam. Prime Minister Pham Van Dong said, for the sake of the second Asia-African Conference in June, there would be no document this time round, because some countries may use it as an excuse to not participate in the second Asia-African Conference.

As for the symposium, Sukarno agreed to talk about it at 7am this morning, but the schedule did not work out, thus this was changed to an introduction by Prime Minister Pham Van Dong on Vietnam's situation, with some countries listening in as participants.

Premier Kim expressed his agreement.
