June 17, 1967
Central Committee of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia, 'The Near East Situation and Our Further Procedure"

Citation:
http://digitalarchive.wilsoncenter.org/document/144970

Summary:
Cover page to a long report on the outcome of the Six-Day War and Czechoslovakian relations with the United Arab Republic.

Original Language:
Czech

Contents:
- English Translation
Top Secret!

Regarding: The Near East situation and our further procedure

This report on the Near East situation and the proposals for our proceeding further is being presented for final approval - according to the decision made by the Presidium of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia on June 13th. We present this report on the course of negotiations and on the information regarding further requirements laid down by the Egyptian party.

Appendix I

Draft resolution

Appendix III

a) Information about the situation

b) Proposal of proceeding further

Appendix IV

a) Preliminary conclusions regarding the causes of the United Arab Republic's and the Arab states' defeat including some ideas within military policy from the military aspects point of view

b) Overview of the hitherto deliveries and aid for the Arab states in the 1956-1966 period and a comparison of the Arab states technology with Israeli technology

c) Materials that can be released for delivery into Arab states (sales or as a donation)

d) Information regarding the Czechoslovak relationships with the United Arab Republic and the Syrian Arab Republic

Handed in by: Cde. V. Koucký

Cde. V. David

Cde. O. Kaderka

Cde. B. Lomský

Cde. O. Rytíř

June 17th 1967

Number of pages: 52

This document needs to be returned at the latest within one month to the Secretariate of the First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia