The Kremlin

Present: The American Ambassador, Mr. Harriman

Marshal Stalin

Mr. Molotov

Mr. Page, Second Secretary of Embassy

Mr. Pavlov, Secretary to Mr. Molotov

Subject: Message from the President

I said that the President had asked me to pay to Marshal Stalin his respects and to say that he was very gratified at the progress which had been made in all aspects of Soviet-American relations. The Marshal replied that he also was gratified and that “We are going along a good road.”

The entire conversation, which is described in a series of seven memoranda, lasted about two hours. The Marshal looked well but appeared tired before the talk was over.
