UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION FOR THE UNIFICATION AND REHABILITATION OF KOREA

Seoul, 13 January 1967

Dear Mr. Narasimhan,

The domestic political scene was quiet before the opening of the special session of the National Assembly on 16 January at which the President will deliver his State of the Nation message and the political parties their keynote speeches. There is therefore nothing to report.

As regards the question of logistical support for the Commission and the next session of the Commission, I have reported to you today in two separate cables.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,
