Note by the Secretariat:- Reproduced below is information provided by the ROK Foreign Ministry on recently reported security incidents.

Subject : An incident of armed agents infiltration

Date : March 4, 1973 0030 hours

Location : U-do Island, 3.5 kilometers off Cheju-do (Yunpyong-ri, Kuchua-myun, Pukcheju-kun, Cheju-do Province)

Details : A small number of armed agents, believed to be two or three, infiltrated into U-do at 0035 hours and shot on a fisherman (Yim Soon-ho, 26) who was going to the sea-shore, together with another fisherman (Ko-Je-soo, 32) to watch their sea weed farm. Yim soon-ho was shot through the abdomen when they found an armed agent and failed to answer the pass-word.

Two unidentified boats were also found about the same time by Kang Chun-kwan, 39, a farmer, who was also proceeding to the coast to join Yim and Ko.

A searching operation was immediately launched by military personnel, policemen and members of Homeland Reserve Forces.

According to the above witnesses, the armed agents used a pass-word and called each other "tongmoo" or the north Korean Communists version of "comrade". A bullet shell of a north-Korean-made quick-firing-gun was also found on the spot.
