M. PRESTON GOODFELLOW
2424 FOXHALL ROAD, N. W.
WASHINGTON 7, D. C.

September 23d, 1954.

Dear Dr. Rhee:

I would appreciate a decision on the tungsten proposal as soon as it is convenient. After one disappointment I was especially careful in selecting Firth-Sterling. I am sure Mr. Ahn was impressed with the Firth-Sterling's operation and management. This of course is a free enterprise project in which you have always lent encouragement.

Korea has a real job ahead in public relations. Japan is working particularly hard in this field to gain public acceptance. Your Ambassador here is a great builder of good will.

Mrs. Goodfellow joins in sending our best to Mrs. Rhee and you.

Sincerely,

M. Preston Goodfellow

P.S. - I just had luncheon with D
Mr. A. George Henderson who, in Washington, has charge of Korea's rehabilitation program under Justice Millham. He was, by the way, a prisoner of the Japanese for three years. He is a real friend of Korea.
He leaves for Seoul a week from today and will return here early in November to take part in budget discussions.

I am not familiar with the protocol in such a case
but if you can invite him to call upon you I think you may find him a clear thinker on your problems. Mr Henderson lived a long time in the Philippines.
