

February 2, 1971

Memorandum from [withheld] for Deputy Chief [withheld], 'Recent Radio Free Europe (RFE) Broadcasts to Poland' [Declassified September 19, 2016]

Citation:

"Memorandum from [withheld] for Deputy Chief [withheld], 'Recent Radio Free Europe (RFE) Broadcasts to Poland' [Declassified September 19, 2016]", February 2, 1971, Wilson Center Digital Archive, CIA Mandatory Declassification Review, #C05459045. Obtained and contributed by A. Ross Johnson.

https://digitalarchive.wilsoncenter.org/document/134834

Summary:

CIA officials responsible for RFE question the criticism of RFE Polish broadcasts by the Polish Government, the West German Government, and the State Department and conclude that coverage of the December 1970 unrest in Poland was responsible and effective.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan

Ć05459045

DECLASSIFIED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE INTERAGENCY SECURITY CLASSIFICATION APPEALS PANEL, E.O. 13526, SECTION 5.3(b)(3)

ISCAP APPEAL NO. 2012-031, document no. 2 DECLASSIFICATION DATE: September 19, 2016

SLUMLI

74 2912 26 71 246 77

2 February 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR	Deputy Chief,
SUBJECT:	Recent Radio Free Europe (RFE)  Breadcasts to Peland	50X1, E.O.13526
REFERENCE:
·

- 1. Reference memorandum described the 6 January demarche made by Polish Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs Winiswicz to U.S. Ambassador Steessel on the topic of recent RFE broadcasts to Poland. The memorandum also discussed comments made to a U.S. Embassy Bonn efficer by West German Foreign Office officials on this same subject.
- Stocssel, in a 21 January message (Annex A), expressed his concern over the contest of five RFE broadcasts to Poland during the period 16-29 December. Ambassador Stocssel emphasized that the Poles are "sensitive" to the "use of vituperative language concerning Polish political personalities" and he noted that the West Germans are also "sensitive" to likely Polish protests on this matter to Bonn. He expressed the opinion that RFE "attacks on Polish personalities" may damage U.S. interests at a time "when it is not known how much influence General Morner may have on the policies of the Polish party and government and the Polish attitude toward the U.S. is not yet clear. "The Ambassador noted that he has previously recommended that RFE avoid "bitter or abusive language and tone" in its broadcasts and should not permit a "special bias" to be shown against selected

Withheld under statutory authority of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C., section 403g)

SECRET

C05459045

SEUNLI

political leaders. He concluded with a request that RFE "review its broadcasts with the aim of eliminating harsh attacks on personalities and, where necessary, moderating the overall tone of its broadcasts."

- 3. The question of recent RFE broadcasts to Poland was also raised by the West German Foreign Office officials on 25 January in the context of a U.S. Embassy brising an Senator Case's proposals regarding RFE and Radio Liberty (Annex B). The German official mentioned that "it is no secret that School, Bahr and Brandt are not enthusiastic about RFE and that additional problem broadcasts... would only cause heightened irritation." He also said that he was uninformed as to what action Foreign Minister School might take with regard to the two broadcasts he had described earlier (referent memorandum, paragraph 3).
- 4. Polish diplomatic representatives in Washington have also brought up the question of recent RFE broadcasts with U.S. officials. On 21 December 1970 Polish Ambassador Jersy Michalowski, in a conversation with Deputy Assistant Secretary (EUR) Richard Davies and Mr. Doyle Martin, Polish Affairs Officer (EUR/CHP), said that RFE had beamed "exaggerated reporting with an anti-socialist and anti-communist plant, hour after hour." During this discussion, the Anthassador also commented negatively on recent VOA broadcasts to Poland. Mr. Davies voiced his understanding that the Ambassador was not making a demarche and, in connection with the VOA broadcasts, said that he would be glad to look into the situation should the Ambassador provide him with references to specific broadcasts (Annex C). On & Jenuary Andraei Wojtowicz, First Secretary at the Polish Embassy, discussed RFE and VOA broadcasts with USIA Assistant Director (USSR and Eastern Europe) Kempton Jenkins. Wojtowics said that RFE broadcasts to Poland are "a different story" than the VOA broadcasts and he complained that RFE "in just doing its regular business... in a situation like the riots becomes an important irritant for the Polish government," (Annex D)

C05459045.

SECRET

50X1, E.O.1		s.	discussed these developments concerning olish broadcasts with Mr. Durkes, President of Free Eure	pe, I	Inc., and arranged to have all of the pertinent official traff	ic sho	own to Mr. Walter, RFE's Director. We also provided
	But i	nitial	I evaluation of recent Polish broadcasts to both men (Anne	*
	E).	A# &	result of the recent proposals made by Sesater Case
	rega	rding	the Radios, we informed RFE that we consider it
	impe	rativ	re that the Radio avoid broadcasting any commentaries
			ght be considered "problem broadcasts" by the West Germ	AA
		4-	slish governments (Annex F). Although we assumed that already being done, we have obtained confirmation from tee that extraordinary precentions are indeed being taken ). It should be noted, however, that this prophylactic s initiated in order to avoid further complicating, in our with Bonn, the already difficult situation brought about by
			ase. It does not indicate that we agree that either
	Arnb	agend	dor Stoessel's or the West German Foreign Office complainsidered fully justified.	nto

50X1, E.O.13526 6. views on this matter, some of which might be used as talking points with the Department of State, follows

Stoccael but not by the German officials, are attached as Annex M. Of these three, one script contains no reference to General Mockar and the other two include comments similar to those objected to in the earlier two scripts. The pertinent phrases are: "...police elements, from thier very nature the most regressive, grouped around Miscayslaw Mockar, a supporter of the use of the most brutal and ruthless forms of reling, based on violence and terror..." and "the bandit units, trained and prepared for their task according to the methods and instructions of Miscayslaw Mockar, vastly contributed in March 1968 to the spreading of the student riots... the same thing happened now...." A third passage, attributed to reports in the French press, includes the statement that "...faar primarily seized the apparatus of violence and the man (Moczar) who is running it...."

-SECRET

b. We offered some comments on RFE's treatment of General Maccar in the referent memorandum (paragraph 5-b.). While we believe that the general thrust and objectives of RFE's criticism are valid, the language used in these passages could again be considered injudicious at the time of broadcast. The words "bandit units" should not have been used. In our view, it is indisputable that General Mocsar is and long has been a central figure in Polish political life. His unquestionably exerts great influence on the policies of the Polish party and government and, in AFE's opinion, the political struggle between Moczer and Gierek is a dominant feature of the current political situation. RFE's Polish broadcasts would lack credibility with their audience should RFE ignore or downplay blocsar's importance. Meczar is the Party Secretariat member specifically charged with control over all internal security matters and the security apparatus is known by all Poles to be "brutal and ruthless" and it is guilty as charged for its role in the Gdansk disturbances. It is difficult to see how RFE can comment on Mocsar and the U.B. in any but unfavorable terms. We would consider that the "generalised criticisms" of the militia, as recommended by Ambassador Stosses, without mentioning Mocsar at all would be inadequate in terms of RFE's credibility with its audience. Without having splicited the RFE management's views on this matter, we would recommend that the Department of State offer its opinion on exactly how and in what terms RFE could or should treat General Mocsar and the security services. (In this connection, it is important to note that the current State/CIA/RFE paper on broadcasting policy for Poland is dated March 1966. Clearly, it is in need of revision, and this action has been initiated.

c. RFE's criticism of Mocrar and the internal security forces must also be balanced against the totality of recent Polish broadcasts. Between 16 and 31 December, RFE's Polish broadcasting department was on the air for about 146 hours and most of this time was devoted to newscasts and political commentary on Polish developments. It appears to us that four short critical phrases on the internal security forces, at a time when these were killing large numbers of Poles in the disturbed Baltic area, is an indication of remarkable restraint under the circumstances. It should also be recalled that the members of RFE's Polish staff are and consider themselves to be Polish patriots. In this connection, we note that the international press has carried a number of storest concerning alleged atrocities committed in mid-December in Poland; these reports were not carried by RFE on the basis that the stories were inadequately sourced. An example of a draft script on this subject, rejected by Mr. Walter, is attached as Annex I.

SEUNL

- d. One of RFE's principal functions is to level criticism of people, institutions and policies when such criticism is justified. Criticism must, of course, be constructive and petty recriminations and vituperation is prohibited. In this regard, an occasional slip cannot, realistically speaking, always be avoided. Obviously, if a prominent party or government leader—and Mocsar is both—is a hardliner who deserves condemnation for his actions he will be sharply criticized, and RFE, as a result, leaves itself open to charges of showing a "special bias." Despite these comments, it is possible that RFE is, in fact, guilty of showing a "special bias" against Mocsar and this will be discussed with appropriate RFE officials and, if true, corrected.
- e. Ambassador Stossel, in his second message (Annex A), mentioned again Winiewicz's accusation that RFE broadcast commentary to the effect that Party First Secretary Cierek went to Moscow in early January "to get his orders." Although the Ambassador could not locate an RFE script on this subject, it is presumably the one attached as Annex J. Insofar as we can determine after a thorough review, this is the sole commentary broadcast by RFE on the Clerek trip. It is clearly no coincidence that the Winiewicz demarche was made on the same day that this script was broadcast. It is evident that this then appeared in the daily monitoring report which is prepared for the Foreign Ministry and other party and government offices. As a reading will show, this script in no way supports the charge made by Winiewicz.

-SECRET

- It should be stressed that the West German official's view that the "Radio's general line on the causes of the ricting was incorrect" and that "RFE portrayed the workers' unrest as a result of anti-Soviet feelings" are both irrefutably erroneous. In addition. Ambassador Stoessel's seculng inclination to accept Winiewicz's charge with regard to the Gierek trip to Moscow is, as discussed in the foregoing paragraph, incorrect. In sum, both the Ambassador's and the West German Foreign Office shotgun-type criticism does, in fact, boil down to four short passages, all dealing with General Mocsay, and one inconsequential remark concerning former Trade Union Chief Loga-Sowinski (see referent assemprandum paragraph 5-a.). This is much different from the far more generalized West German and U.S. Embassy charges that the overall treatment given by RFE of the Polish situation is and was basically erroneous, that the Radio normally uses "abusive and hitter language and tone on its broadcasts, " and frequently and harably attacks numerous Polish personalities.
- g. We are struck by the fact that Polish "sensitivities" are given such weight by Ambassador Stoessel. The Communists for their part, of course, pay little heed to U.S. sensitivities on this particular issue. Soviet and East European media report extensively and frequently on police brutality, storm-trooper factics, etc. in the U.S. given any opportunity. This has been particularly true, for example, during their coverage of racial disturbances and incidents connected with the 1968 Chicago Democratic convention. RFE's occasional comments on communist security police activities are considerably more restrained than those made by the communist countries.

h. We should relterate our conviction that RFE's coverage of the Polish situation has been entirely responsible throughout the continuing Polish crisis. The Radio should morit (and it receives from East European citizens and West European media) high marks for doing a remarkably effective job.

C05459045

SUME

- i. Declared West German apprehensions over a probable Polish demarche on RFE broadcasts are overdrawn. The definitive German position on this matter was outlined to appropriate Polish officials during the West German-Polish negotiations last fall. It should not be difficult for this position to be reiterated if necessary. In this connection, it might not be inappropriate for Bonn to indicate that Soviet Bloc broadcasting treatment of West Germany is also open to criticism. The "tit-for-tat" material, now available in Bonn, supports this position.
- j. On many occasions, high-level Pollsh officials have taken pains to indicate that RFE broadcasts have little if any impact in Poland. These attempts to diminish RFE's actual importance, by portraying it as being no more than a minor nuisance, occur simultaneously with the continuous, heavy barrage of criticism. which is the truer measure of the Radio's effectiveness. The wellknown West German correspondent Hans-Jakob Stehle, for example, reported that former Polish Party First Secretary Comulks told him on 7 December 1970 that "...he neither reads nor listens to what RFE has to say, because only the opinions of serious opponents, not of slanderers, interest him...." (Annex K) Another view of RFE broadcasts was offered on 7 January to RFE's Geneva Bureau Chief by the First Secretary of the Polish Mission to the UN Headquarters is Geneva. Roman Wiazle. Wizzlo, whese position would presumably make him familiar with regime views on recent RFE broadcasts, said that it is his impression that there has been a "trend toward moderation" in recent RFE's broadcasts to Poland. His comment, of course, stands in obvious contradiction to the statements made by Polish officials to U.S. officials and the treatment afforded by Polish media (Annex L).

50X1, E.O.13526	k.	There	is	an.	obvious
·

k. There is an obvious contradiction, of course, between objectives and current RFE breadcasting policies. This argument cannot, however, be made with the Department of State. The subject matter of the criticisms that have been raised earlier by our Embassies in Bucharest and Prague, and now by Warsaw. 50X1, E.O.13526 might be considered to be entirely consistent with an objective. As these, however, may be inconfestent with State/ CIA/RFE broadcast policy papers, they are more difficult to defend. A broadcast which stated that Gierek went to Moscow "to get his orders" would be consistent with harassing the Soviets but inconsistent with RFE policy papers. Withheld under statutory authority of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C., section 403g) Attachments: Annexes A thru L 50X1, E.O.13526 Withheld under statutory authority of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C., section 403g)

C05459045

SECRET