MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Allen Dulles

SUBJECT: Statement of Mission and Objectives of the American Committee for Liberation from Bolshevism

The attached statement of the mission and operational objectives of the American Committee for Liberation from Bolshevism has been drafted by Admiral Stevens and his staff in consultation with representatives of your Agency and of the Department. This statement is an accurate description of what the Department understands to be the mission and operating objectives of the Committee.

The Department considers that activities of the American Committee conducted in conformity with the attached statement would constitute a significant contribution to the implementation of United States foreign policy and hopes that the Agency will find it possible to extend to the Committee its continuing support.
